

From the Desk of Fr. Jim:

When we hear the story of the Good Samaritan in today's Gospel, sometimes I worry that we have heard it so many times before that our ears hear it one more time without really being challenged by it. The man in the parable asks

Jesus, Who is my neighbor? We find out that the only requirement to being a neighbor is need. It is not a question of who or why or when or how, but only a question of need.

Seeing the needs of other people can make us feel a little overwhelmed by God's command to love our neighbor as ourselves. We realize that it's a big job. Mother Teresa was once asked why she continued to serve the needs of the poorest of the poor in India. Her critics reminded her that the work she was doing couldn't make a big difference when so many people were suffering and helpless. Mother Teresa looked down at the sick man she was feeding and simply stated, "It makes a difference to this one."

As we reflect on this gospel story of the Good Samaritan today, I hope that we hear it with new ears and are challenged by it. Challenged enough to show compassion to others by being a neighbor to those who need us.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

(Based on today's Bible readings)

Adult: What person or people do I find most difficult to recognize as my neighbor?

Child: How can I love other people as God loves them?

Teen: Would I help a new student who needed help? Why or why not?

From Deacon Don's Desk:

Catholic relics come in three stages: 1st Class is believed to belong to the saint. 2nd Class is something the saint wore or used, i.e. clothes. 3rd Class is usually a piece or cloth or some material touched by the body of the saint.

This Wednesday, the 14th, we celebrate the feast day of St. Camillus de Lellis (1550-1614). He is the patron saint of the sick and poor, nurses and those caring for the sick. Here is a companion's reflection: "Let me begin with holy charity. It is the root of all the virtues and Camillus' most characteristic virtue....not only toward God but also to his fellow man. When taking care of patients he seemed to have exhausted himself completely. In the sick person he saw Christ. His imagination was so vivid, that while feeding them, he perceived his patients as other Christs. He would even beg them for the gift of forgiveness for his sins. He would like to plant this virtue in every human heart. Great and embracing was Camillus' charity. If there were no poor people in the world, he should have to go below the earth to look for them and rescue them, to show them compassion."

Do you know that in our chapel in the PAC we have a relic of St. Camillus de Lellis imbedded on the altar? What a gift we have that has gone without notice. Stop and pray awhile in that little chapel.

Check out the St. Joseph website then click on the "Saint of the Day."

Prayer for Infirm: All powerful and ever-living God, in whom we live and move and have our being. Thank You for giving us those who need our care. Grant that they may have the loving support of family and friends, that in good health they may be cheerful and in poor health they may not lose hope. Sustained by the help of Your blessing, let them spend their time giving praise to Your name. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Small Church Community

Scripture Focus: In today's Gospel two questions are addressed to Jesus by a legal expert and Jesus answers both by posing a further question. The answer to the second question takes a bit more time. Jesus tells a shocking story. The story is shocking because the Samaritans, who were descended from Jews who had intermarried with pagans, were hated by Jesus. So, the good Samaritan looks after someone who despises him. After the story, Jesus poses a counter question, which really changes the original question from "Who is my neighbor?" to "What is involved in my being a neighbor?" the reluctant answer is "The one who treated him with compassion." And Jesus says, "Then go and do the same."

Life Focus: * In the parable of the Good Samaritan, which of the characters do you identify with? Explain
 * When has a person you least expected shown you the way? * When did you feel second best or excluded? Who was or was not a Good Samaritan to you? * When were you a good neighbor to a stranger? * Describe an occasion when you did not help a person who needed you.
 * Who do you find it easy to pass by? Why?

Did You Know? Child Abuse is a National Problem - According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services there were 794,000 reported child abuse victims in 2007 alone. Imagine if a disease claimed that many young lives. What would be our national response? Abuse, even if it is not fatal, robs a life and damages a child's spirit. It changes who that person is on a fundamental level. For particular help, you may call Assistance Ministry, 213-637-7650.
