Second Sunday of Advent
December 7, 2014

St. Joseph Parish is a community of believers who uphold the teachings of the Gospel and the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, foster the formation and enrichment of parishioners in spirituality, worship and education, providing a welcoming environment to all. We live Christian lives by praying together, caring for our diverse community, encouraging and sharing of ourselves in service to others.

From the Pastor's desk:

The responsorial psalm today tells us that kindness and truth shall meet, and justice and peace shall kiss. One cannot exist without the other. If there is injustice, then there is no peace. Peace is the result of and is the fruit of justice.

Some years ago the American bishops wrote a pastoral letter called, "The Challenge of Peace." In this letter the Bishops ask us to examine our attitudes carefully to see if we really do think of and treat people of other classes and nations in a spirit of common humanity, living out in our daily lives what the gospel proclaims.

This is what we pray for in every Mass when we pray for peace and then celebrate it in the sign of peace. We should never restrict this sign of peace to only the church or to ourselves. My prayer for each of us is that we support the theme of today's Scripture and that the gospel of justice always informs our pursuit of peace in the world.

From Deacon Don's desk:

Legend has it that Leonardo da Vinci, while painting the Last Supper, had a terrible fight with someone. Picking up his brush to prepare to paint the face of Jesus, he couldn't make a single decent stroke. He put down his brush, went to the one he had fought with and asked his forgiveness. Afterward he returned to his studio and began painting the face of Jesus.

What threatens to keep us from doing what we ought, to prepare for the coming of the Messiah? John the Baptist tells us to look within, change our own attitudes, then trust God to allow change to take place in our lives and help to transform the world by preparing the world for Jesus Christ.

"Christ is not valued at all unless He is valued above all." St Augustine

My prayer is that we extend into December the following November Papal Intentions: "That all who suffer loneliness may experience the closeness of God and support of others. That young seminarians and Religious may have wise and well-formed mentors." Amen

Advent Penance Service

This coming Advent season, let us take this opportunity to strengthen our relationship with Christ through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Our book this quarter is “50 Reasons I Love Being Catholic” by Elizabeth M.

Kelly. There are so many reasons to love being Catholic, and thirty-something Liz Kelly - a successful writer and jazz singer

- eagerly shares those reasons in May Crowning, Mass, and Merton. Kelly says, "Mine is not an extraordinary faith . . . but the litany of reasons to love being Catholic is extraordinary." Kelly lists 50 reasons to embrace the Catholic faith, including daily Mass, kneelers in church, and the crucifix. With wit and great affection, covering everything from Michelangelo's creation frescoes to St. Pope John Paul II, this lay Catholic reminds us all why the Catholic faith is so special. We will be selling the books on Sundays, Dec 7 and 14 outside Mass. For further information you may contact Nancy Longo at the Religious Education office, e-mail Virginia Young at ginnyy67@gmail.com or check out the Adult Faith Formation page on our St. Joseph Website.
