From Deacon Don's desk:

I realize that Christmas time has past, but before we leave it, there's been a story floating around about a fourth Magi. Let's set the record straight. It is true, but here is how it actually went. It was Henry Van dyke who wrote: His name was Artaban. He was to go with the other three kings in search of the newborn king. Artaban had a pouch of precious gems as a gift for the baby king. On his way to join the other three, he stopped to help a needy person. The delay was just enough to cause him to miss the other wise men. He never did catch up to them. He kept helping people and giving away all his gems. Artaban ended up a beggar in a faraway city called Jerusalem. One day he saw a criminal carrying a cross and being sent to be executed. He felt close to the man and sad he could not help him. As the "criminal" drew near, he turned to Artaban and said, "Be not sad, you have been helping Me all your life." Now you know the rest of the story. OUR PRAYER: Father, You revealed Your Son by the guidance of a star. Lead us to Your glory in heaven by the light of Faith. We ask this through Christ, Your Son who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever. Amen

End Slavery and Trafficking of Humans and Effect Rescue -

Many victims of human trafficking may look like someone you may see every day. Here are some signs to help identify victims: person seems to be under control of another, cannot move or leave a job, bruises or other signs of injury, no passport or identification, isolation from family members.

This crime is taking place in our own community. Stay alert, raise awareness with friends and neighbors, and support organizations that take care of those most likely to become victims (runaways, foster children, immigrants). If you would like to be a part of our Esther Ministry, please email us at estherministry1@gmail.com.
