Parish Life

Welcome

Dear Parish Family:

Today, Archbishop José Gomez has asked that every parish participate in “SB 360 Sunday” to express our opposition to this California Senate bill, unless it is amended to protect the sacrament of confession in every instance. Thank you for your participation and for assisting the church to maintain the integrity and seal of the Sacrament of Penance.

This week, on June 19, I celebrate the 37th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood of Jesus Christ. Where have the years gone? I remember with fondness Cardinal Timothy Manning who was the ordaining Prelate, my pastor Monsignor James O’Callaghan who inspired my vocation to the priesthood, and my beloved parents Beverly and Joseph to whom I offered my first blessing as a new priest. Please pray for them as they are all in the kingdom of heaven. Please pray for me as your Pastor, that with Christ I may always serve with joy, under the watchful embrace and love of our Blessed Mother.

In Peace,
Msgr. Kevin

Did You Know?

Cyberbullying could be affecting your child. In the summer, children may be spending more time talking to friends online and sharing status updates on social media, playing games, and more. The internet is a great way to keep in touch with classmates while school is out, but it’s also a place where cruel and bullying behavior can be rampant. Talk to your children about internet safety, and be vigilant about who they communicate with and how they are acting.

If your child seems sad or depressed, it could be a sign that bullying is going on. Unlike in school, you can’t walk away from cyberbullying, and harmful messages can be spread quickly. As parents, stay up to date on what sites your children are using, and openly monitor conversations and messages if needed. Learn more in the VIRTUS® article “Cyberbullying — What is it, What Harm Does it Do, and What can Adults do to Help, Part Two?” at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Holy Trinity

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.
