Did You Know?

When shouldn't you be your child's "friend"?

As parents, we want to be close to our children — such closeness is not to be confused with being our children's friend, though – our children need us to be role models, authority figures AND trusted confidants. This can be a difficult balance to maintain, but we cannot let our desire to be close to our children blind us to when they need a strong, reliable adult to tell them what's right and wrong.

Parent/child relationships are not built on equality like friendships. Parents have life experience and wisdom that children do not, which gives you more insight and authority in a given situation. Parents also have the responsibility to make unpopular decisions in their children's best interests, and this is an important responsibility to help your children grow up.

Esther Ministry

Eliminating human trafficking is a priority issue for the Catholic Church. The Catechism of the Church forbids acts that cause the enslavement of humans. During the Second Vatican Council in 1965, the Church stated “slavery, prostitution, the selling of women, and children, and disgraceful working conditions where people are treated as mere tools for profits rather than free and responsible persons are infamies and supreme dishonor to the creator.” (Gaudium et Spes, 1965).

We can all help in eliminating this crime by being aware of the signs of trafficking, advocating for fair trade products, educating others that this exists in our own neighborhoods, and praying for those forced into slavery.

Please visit: sistersagainsttrafficking.org/help for more information.

Also join our email list at estherministry1@gmail.com to receive updates on our current activities.

Book Club

Our new book is titled “Harm Not the Earth” by Megan McKenna, a well-known speaker at the Religious Education Congress and author of many books. This book discusses our attitudes towards God and the Earth and what it means to live and be responsible for creation in the image and likeness of God.

Our discussion will take place on Wednesday, October 9, at 7pm in the PLC. Enjoy reading the book even if you are not available for the discussion. This book is available from Amazon.
