Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the Fourth Sunday of Easter! In our Gospel for this weekend, we meet Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who invites his disciples to hear his voice and follow him. There are so many voices outside in the world clamoring for our attention. Pray for a discerning ear to hear the voice of Jesus Christ, who will satisfy and fulfill you in ways that none of the other voices in the world ever will!

The month of April is Child Abuse Protection Month. Through our Safeguard the Children programs, prevention and reporting, fingerprinting and background checks, our lay staff and volunteers are at the forefront of our local church protecting children. In the last 20+ years, over 440,000 adults have been trained in abuse prevention and reporting. 165,000 students in our schools and religious education programs are taught boundary awareness and tools for reporting. Over 257,000 adults have been fingerprinted and background checked. We are united with the world and praying for the victim – survivors of child abuse. Pray they will be rescued. Pray they are placed with caring people. Pray their minds and bodies can heal. Pray they find hope. Pray for those who rescue them. Pray for the witnesses to find courage. Pray for the community to be educated. Here at Saint Joseph's, let us reaffirm the gift of childhood. May we always recognize our call to protect each other, especially our children and intervene if we observe any wrongdoing.

Next weekend, I will be in Rome, Italy, with Archbishop Gomez celebrating the wedding of some longtime friends. The wedding will take place in Saint Peter's Basilica. The Archbishop will preside at the Wedding Mass, and I'll deliver the homily. Many of you know the bride, Jacky Ibarra as she often sings at our 12:30 PM Mass. Jacky is the third of three children and I've been blessed to participate and preach at all three weddings. Please remember Jacky and Sergio in your prayers and all couples who are witnessing their faith and love in a Church Wedding. For me, it's a short trip as I leave next Friday and I'll be home the following Wednesday. As I pray at the Altar of Saint Peter's, I'll remember you and your families' intentions! Ciao!!

Easter Joy,
Msgr. Kevin

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus the Good Shepherd knows that real love is an action, not an idea. His sacrifice is the proof of his love for his flock. Let us remember to love one another as the Good Shepherd loves us: not just in words but in actions, in choices, in deeds.

Saint of the week

St. Paschal Baylón was a devout Spanish monk. In his vocation as a lay brother, he worked as a chef, porter, gardener, and official beggar. He often gave so much to the poor that his brothers tried to limit his generosity. Because of his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, he is the Patron Saint of Eucharistic Congresses and Societies.

Prayer of the Good Shepherd

Dear Lord,
You are my Shepherd, a Good Shepherd, who leads in ways beyond my understanding. Guide me in the paths You would have me go.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week he says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.
