Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Jesus Christ is always extending an invitation for us to grow in our relationship with him. As we encounter His presence this Sunday, he asks his disciples and us, “Who do you say that I am?” May our answers reflect the simple and real ways that Jesus Christ is always present to us! Welcome to the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time!

Next Sunday, September 22, we'll begin the Dismissal Rite of Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 8:30 AM Holy Mass on the grass. We will invite children ages five through eight (kindergarten through third grade) to be dismissed to one of the school classrooms before the scripture readings at Mass and return to the Mass in time for the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Mr. Marc Leon, our Director of Faith Formation has 21 trained adults to teach the children the Gospel lesson in their age-appropriate setting. The Volunteers have gone through Virtus training and have been fingerprinted in accord with Archdiocesan protocols of safeguarding and protecting our children.

We are blessed to have 16 individuals who are inquiring about our beautiful Catholic faith and are now participating in the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). If you are not baptized, or share in another Christian faith, and have questions about our church, you are welcome to come and inquire. Please contact Sr. Eva in our Parish Life Office.

This weekend is Catechetical Sunday, and we give thanks to God for our teachers in the school and our catechists who teach our youth in our religious education programs. Pray for them, and may the Lord bless them for their service to our young people at Saint Joseph's.

Next Sunday is our Movement for a Better World annual report. Thank you to Tim Clark, and the leadership who coordinate all the activities for MBW. Thanks to all of you who support our various missions to families and the vulnerable in need. Next Sunday is Feed a Baby Sunday – please scroll down and see the items that are needed. If you can assist us – thank you!

As flames and smoke billow into the air of Southern California, let's pray for all those whose homes are in the path of the fires, and pray for the weary firefighters, and first responders who are protecting lives and property.

Blessings this last week of summer,
Msgr. Kevin

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Take up your cross and follow me," Jesus tells us. We are called to have a faith that is defined by the willingness to go where Christ has gone, and to do what Christ has done, to see Christ in others and to love them as he loves us.

Saint of the week

St. Mary Josphe Rossello (1811-1880) was born to a poor family in Liguria, Italy. She was prevented from entering established religious orders because she lacked a dowry. However, the bishop of Savona helped her open a school and establish her own order, which never required a fee to enter.

Prayer for Catechism Students

Dear God,
You never stop drawing us closer to You.
Pour Your grace upon these young disciples as they learn about You.
Attract them. Challenge them.
Love them. Guide them.
Bless them.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

This morning I received a text message that a member of my extended family will likely die of cancer within the next few hours. His name is Luke. He is a 45-year-old husband and father of six. Though I am not as close to him as my sister (she is his sister-in-law and knows him well), I wonder: how can we, including Luke himself, manage such a terribly awful and unfair situation?

The words of this Sunday's Gospel offer a powerful and challenging path. Jesus says, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me" (Mark 8:34). Today I see with new freshness the starkness and strangeness of the words take up. The cross stands for suffering which is unjust, absurd, seemingly hopeless, and humiliating. Jesus doesn't say "accept" or "endure" or "tolerate," but "take up." Embrace it, actively. Choose it and lift it up for others to see what terrifies and sickens us. But somehow, for Jesus, this is the path to "saving one's life." A new world is breaking in, one in which love is everything, when no relationship can be wounded or die. I trust that in the embraced suffering of Luke and his loved ones, Jesus is taking up his cross and saving us all.

By the time you read this, barring a miracle, Luke will have died. He will be carrying his cross no longer. But we all still face suffering. This week let's not just endure, but take up our crosses, big and small. That's our only hope for saving our lives.

Did You Know?

Consider rules around school devices

If your child is using a tablet, iPad, or phone for school this year, you need to be aware of what they can access online. While many school devices may have safety controls in place, children are pretty creative, and may be able to maneuver around these safeguards. Consider making a “tech space” in your home, where all devices live when they are not in use — and make it centrally located, so you know whenever someone takes a device. Consider also having your children use their devices in the main area of the house, with supervision. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “5 Keys to Monitoring Kids Online Activity” on lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
