Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time. This week, Jesus confronts the 12 about their ambitions and their desires to be the greatest. Jesus reminds us that “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all, and the servant of all.” Jesus is always trying to rid us of any selfish ambitions so that we could be open to receiving His message of grace and love. Wherever there is in-fighting and arguing, a sense of peace or calm coexistence remains aloof. Ask and pray for peace in your life so that you can be a witness of peace to others.

This weekend Movement for a Better World offers its annual financial report. Please scroll down this bulletin to review the financial statement and program flyer listing the opportunities to serve. On behalf of MBW, thank you for all your generosity to support the many ways that our community takes care of the vulnerable and those in need.

The California Catholic Bishops have formed a new Initiative called Radiant Love, and its purpose is to inspire a new reflection on the joy and beauty of marriage, the blessings of children and family, and on the importance of marriage and family for the health of individuals and the well-being of society.

Please check out the new website with inspiring resources at cacatholic.org/radiatelove/

This week’s photo of the construction progress shows the building moving out and up:

Today is the first day of Autumn. May the Lord Bless your Fall Season!

Peace, Msgr. Kevin

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The apostles argue, each one claiming to be the greatest of Christ's followers. But Christ shows them who is truly the greatest — a child, one who has no thought of his own importance, one who has no ambition. Let's seek to be like that child.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a wet-behind-the-ears seminarian, I was sent for an immersion with the poor. For one month, I lived in a home for adults with developmental disabilities. It was a challenge for me because the residents had significant communication issues. A 30-year-old man there named Robin was totally deaf and mute. He had Down's Syndrome. He looked like a Viking, with a shock of red hair and a fine beard. But I felt awkward and disconnected from him. All my normal ways of interacting failed. I resigned myself to the fact that we'd never connect.

Then one morning something amazing happened. He was on the living room floor quietly playing with toys. Watching him from a chair, I sensed Jesus' words float into my mind, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me" (Mark 9:37). I thought, "Jesus, you must somehow be in Robin." I sheepishly made sure no one else was in the room, and then I spoke in a clear voice: "Jesus, are you there?" Robin did not turn to me and say, "Hi, John. Yes, it's me, Jesus." He kept playing with his toys in silence.

But something changed in me. From that moment on, it was easier to just be with Robin, to joke around with him, to try sign-language with him, to let him be himself, and for me to be myself. His "disabilities" were no longer obstacles to overcome. He became just Robin, my friend.

Who in your life seems awkwardly distant or uncomfortable to be with? Next time you see him or her, quietly invoke the name of Jesus, and see how the barriers disappear in you.

St. Joseph School Knights for a Better World

Our Knights for a Better World program provides students from Alpha K through 8th grade with meaningful opportunities for charitable giving. Each Tuesday, students are encouraged to bring donations to Mass, where the items are then collected and counted by the Student Council. This initiative directly supports our parish's larger community service project, Movement for a Better World, fostering a spirit of generosity and service among our students.

We are Disciples of Christ

Our Disciples of Christ brought in hundreds of diapers, formula, wipes and other baby items in the month of September. These donations will support Long Beach families in need, embodying the spirit of the Corporal Works of Mercy.

Did You Know?

Shop safely with your children

When you are with your children in a crowded shopping area — think mall, grocery store, farmer's market — it is important to have a plan of action to keep your group together and your children safe. Keep children as close as possible, ideally either in a cart or holding hands. Always go as a group to the bathroom, or at least in pairs, and have a designated spot to meet back up. For more tips, visit missingchildrensnetwork.ngo.
