Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family

Welcome to the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time! This weekend we follow Jesus to Cana, where we hear the well-known story of Jesus turning water into wine! This was Jesus's first public miracle. The people who ran out of wine at the wedding, symbolize people who have run out of hope. Everything had been prepared to be abundant as the wedding couple was celebrating a new life. And then it started to fall apart. Mary, the mother of Jesus noticed, and she told the stewards to do whatever he would tell them, and all would be well. Mary didn't know what Jesus would do, only that he could make a difference. Let's recognize this weekend that with Jesus and his presence in our lives, we truly can make a difference. Make a difference by being a sign of hope to someone who is down, frustrated or hopeless!

This past week, we've seen the difference a community can make when they care about those who have suffered. So much generosity is being bestowed upon the victims of the wildfires. This weekend at all our Masses, we will take up a second collection to support the victims of the wildfires. The monies will go to an Archdiocesan Special Fund called "Wildfires Victims Emergency Relief Fund"! If you would like to make out a check in support of this cause, please make the check to Saint Joseph and in the memo, write - victims wildfire fund. Let's continue to pray for all of those who are suffering!

We are moving towards a target date of opening the newly renovated hall/gym in late May or June. The date may fluctuate due to construction issues. I'm forming a new committee to help us come up with guidelines and regulations regarding the use of the hall and gym by the parish, school and outside groups. If you have any experience in hospitality, catering or writing rental agreements, please contact me and I'll be in touch. Please e-mail me at stjoseph@stjosephlb.org with your contact information and a brief description of your experience or expertise. The time commitment would include attending a few meetings this spring. Thanks for helping us to maintain the beauty of our newly renovated hall/gym.

Next week is our annual Catholic Schools Week 2025. There will be an Open House next Sunday, January 26 from 9:30 AM to 12:00 PM. This will include an art show and the opportunity to visit our classrooms and see the latest works by our amazing students. Scroll down to see the bulletin announcing all of the events for Catholic Schools Week.

Thanks to many of you who went shopping this week and have returned the hygiene kits for the homeless.

This past week, Archbishop Gomez received a letter from Pope Francis, offering his prayers and support to everyone suffering from the wildfires. You can read his letter on the next page.

Let's pray for rain,
Msgr. Kevin

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are all the servants at Cana. Each of us, at various times, finds ourselves confused and unsure, empty where we should be full, unprepared where we should be ready. When we falter, Mary's words give us direction: "Do whatever he tells you."

Devotions, Explained!

The Angelus is an ancient devotion whose practice developed over the course of several centuries. It is composed of three antiphons that tell the story of the annunciation, each followed by a Hail Mary. It is usually said daily at noon.

Prayer for the Miraculous

Oh God,
Oh God beyond my understanding,
Bring Your soul-stirring power
into my life today.
In the places where people are saying, "It can't be done" or
"There's no solution," act in such a way that responds: "There is a way, and there is a God, and He loves me."

Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A friend invited me to an invitation-only wine-tasting event. There were over two hundred varieties of wine. Having no idea how to approach such a massive selection, I wandered aimlessly among the tables, sipping this and that. At the end of the evening my friend asked if I had tried some of the exceptionally expensive wines. I hadn't. "The really good stuff disappears first," he said. "My man, you missed out on some amazing vino." I was so disappointed. I wasted my chance for amazing once-in-a-lifetime wine. The wine I tasted was, well, blah.

Don't we often feel a similar disappointment in life? I missed this or that opportunity. If only I had known. Optimism sputters and fades. The glory days are gone. The chances, it seems, for the really great things in life come and go so quickly. Then they are gone forever. The good stuff goes first. Then life is just blah.

Not so with the Lord Jesus. In Jesus' miracle at the wedding at Cana, the steward of the feast says, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then...an inferior one" (John 2:10). That's the natural downward progression of life. The good stuff disappears quickly. But he says of the groom (who symbolizes Jesus), "But you have kept the good wine until now." This is the ever-improving trajectory of the realm of God's grace. With Jesus, the "good wine" of divine love, hope and peace gets better as our journey of faith progresses. Where are your greatest disappointments? Don't give in to the lie that the really good stuff is gone. Tell Jesus you've run out. Then learn how to taste that amazingly good wine, because he saves the best until now.

January is Human Trafficking Prevention Month
"Born for such a time as this" Esther 4:14

January is a month when ordinary people worldwide become extraordinary advocates for freedom. A time to shine a light on this hidden crime and take meaningful action against it.

Human trafficking isn't a distant problem or just an overwhelming statistic—exploitation is the reality for tens of millions of victims locally and globally.
We have the power to change this.

Thanks to your donations and support this past year, ESTHER Ministry:

- provided direct relief to 27 adult sex trafficking survivors in Long Beach and 10 of their children;
- delivered humanitarian backpacks to homeless women who were displaced after a fire at Lydia House and to other HT street outreach organizations;
- helped furnish and stock a home providing short-term residential therapeutic services for at-risk girls aged 12-17; and
- supplied the Department of Children and Family Services with over 2,500 emergency response items, including diapers, backpacks, school supplies, hygiene products, and comfort items, for at-risk youth in Long Beach.

This crisis is ever-evolving which means we must stay vigilant to know the signs of exploitation, keep up with the trends and be prepared to take action.

Get and stay educated.

Put your awareness into action and make a difference in the fight for freedom today.

Let's unite to combat human trafficking and inspire change!
