Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family!

This weekend is our Together in Mission Weekend and thank you for making a generous pledge/gift to help us reach our parish goal of $75,020. I hope that you've had a chance to view the Together in Mission videos that were e-mailed to you.

For the past few weeks, you've heard me talk about our participation as a parish family in the Synod. This week we will have our first listening session via Zoom. I hope you will tune in this Tuesday, February 22 at 7:00 PM. The zoom link can be found on our Parish website under "What's happening now"!

The other option is to attend an in person listening session on Tuesday March 1 at 7:00 PM in the parish hall/gym. It is Fat Tuesday, the night before Ash Wednesday. We feast and then we fast!! The parish will host food and drink starting at 6:30 PM. The meeting will commence at 7:00. In order to prepare the chair's set up, food and drink, please RSVP by sending an email to stjoseph@stjosephlb.org and letting us know how many in your household plan to attend. Your reservation by this Friday, February 25 is appreciated. No names or other information is needed, just a number. This bulletin on the Synod has some of the questions for you to ponder. Thank you for joining us as we listen to one another and do the great work of the Church!

I'm praying for you and your families,
Msgr. Kevin

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

It’s likely that some friends or followers of Jesus told him, from time to time, to “get real” when his teachings seemed too hard or impractical. John’s Gospel, near the end of the Bread of Life discourse, reports that some disciples out and out turned away because it was too hard to continue following Jesus. When Jesus said to love our enemies, pray for those who hurt us, or do good for those who hate us, the response, “get real,” wouldn’t be surprising. And yet, the very life and witness of Jesus is filled with his prophetic examples of doing just that; of refusing to return harm for harm. The lives of the saints are likewise filled with such examples, especially those saints who were laborers in the field for justice and peace. Is this command of Jesus difficult? Yes. Is it impossible? No.

ROLE REVERSAL

It could have come straight out of a Hollywood script: two enemies, former friends and admirers of each other now pitted against each other. So it is today with Saul and David. Saul had actually praised David for slaying Goliath, and rewarded him by placing him in charge of Israel’s military force. David flourished, and was praised, admired for how clearly the hand of God was upon him. Of course, Saul became jealous, and soon hatched a plot to finish him off. In a turning of the tables, Saul actually becomes the vulnerable one, and David has more than one opportunity to kill him. But it is not a surprise ambush that keeps David from slaying Saul, but the realization that Saul is a meshiach (Messiah), God’s anointed one, the first to bear this title in Israel. Twice David has an opportunity—the second time he even has a witness and accomplice—and yet he will not do what it seems like the script says he should.

REWRITE!

Jesus is also a master of subverting our expectations of what the script is going to do. The scriptwriter we call Luke is even more detailed than Matthew in what “love your enemies” means. Luke spells out specific, active ways to counteract the deeds of those whom we would label “enemies.” Beyond that, Luke’s Jesus says not to lend merely the shirt off our back, but our coat as well; to lend money not only to those who can repay, but to those who can’t. This is the script of God’s Meshiach: do not perpetuate or escalate violence, but reply to it with love. What you think is sufficient generosity needs to be doubled, at the very least. Whenever it seems like the direction of the story needs to be changed—so that harm or sin or cruelty is overcome by love—change the story. Through God’s goodness, we are free to change our story; through God’s grace, we have Jesus to show us the way.

These are the topics Pope Francis has asked us to consider in the Listening Sessions. Under each topic are reflection questions you can use to help you address the topics:

“Listening and Speaking”

- Who is and who is not walking together with Jesus Christ in the Church today?
- In recent years, how has our Church “journeyed together” by providing opportunities for people to be heard?
- In recent years, how have we ignored or even excluded the voices of people on the margins of society and the sidelines of the Church?
- What keeps us from speaking with courage and charity on what matters to us for the life of the Church?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through intentional listening and speaking to one another in the coming years?

“Celebrating”

- In recent years, how have experiences of prayer and the celebration of the liturgy (Mass and the sacraments) deepened our communion with God and with each other?
- In recent years, how have experiences of prayer and the celebration of the liturgy (Mass and the sacraments) guided our common life and mission?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through a richer celebration of the liturgy in the years to come?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting us to promote Sunday Mass attendance and active participation in the celebration of the liturgy?

“Going on Mission”

- In recent years, how have we called every baptized person to participate in the mission to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
- In recent years, how have we encouraged people to use their spiritual gifts for mission in the world? the coming years?

- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully with a clear sense of our common mission to proclaim the Gospel in
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to focus on forming people as missionary disciples of Jesus?

“Dialoguing”

- In recent years, how have we dialogued with people of other religions and people with no religious affiliation?
- In recent years, how have we learned from and contributed to other sectors of society (culture, politics, and economics)?
- In recent years, how have we collaborated in mission with Christians of other traditions and denominations?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through intentional dialogue in the years to come?
- To which issues in society might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to pay closer attention?

“Discerning and Deciding”

- In recent years, how have we intentionally listened to the voice of the Holy Spirit as a Church?
- In recent years, how have we identified needs within the Church and the world and how to address them?
- In recent years, how have our decision-making processes encouraged or discouraged wider consultation within the Church?
- How might the Church be invited to “journey together” more fully through individual and communal listening to the Spirit in the years to come?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through consultative decision-making in the years to come?

“Growing in Synodality”

- What are you learning about communion through the Synod process?
- What are you learning about participation through the Synod process?
- What are you learning about mission through the Synod process?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to form people to “journey together” to live communion, to achieve participation, and to be open to mission?

As you think of possibilities, perhaps pay attention to the ideas that give you clarity, enthusiasm, peace, and hope (these may be an indication of the promptings of the Holy Spirit).

Msgr. Kevin and I look forward to seeing you at one of the Listening Sessions.

Safeguard The Children

Simple touching rules for children

Adult apprehension about discussing touching safety can get in the way of creating a safe environment for children, but doing so is critical to children’s well-being. Keep the touching rules short and sweet: No one has the right to touch a child’s private parts except to keep him or her safe and healthy. If someone tries to touch a child’s private parts, the child should say “No!”, run away, and tell a trusted adult. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Teaching Touching Safety and Preserving Innocence” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Come Journey with Us During Lent as We Experience the Unconditional Love Christ Has for Us!

Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today. No Greater Love is a five-part Bible study program that begins Thursday March, 3rd at 7:00pm on Zoom.
