To set-up and have enough food and drink, please RSVP by Sunday night of this weekend. Just e-mail stjoseph@stjosephlb.org and tell us the number in your party who will attend. No names or phone numbers needed. Thank you for planning to join us and let your voice be heard!

Thanks to all who made a pledge/gift to Together in Mission during our recent Commitment weekend. The in-pew solicitation and mail in generated almost $40,000 in pledges. Our parish goal is $75,020 and please mail in the envelope or give online at togetherinmission.org/give (Remember to credit your gift to St. Joseph's – Long Beach). Thank you for supporting our neediest schools/parishes.

Our parish gift to you is the booklet, "Daily Reflections for Lent, Not by Bread Alone 2022." May your daily offering of a few minutes a day with the Lord illuminate your Lenten journey. The booklets will be available after all Masses this weekend and thanks for picking up one per family.

Let us pray for the safety of the Ukrainian people, for an end to this war and for peace to prevail!

Let's make it a GREAT LENT!!

Lenten Blessings,

PREPARING FOR LENT

As we approach the season of Lent, Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians gives us a sneak peek of Easter, waiting for us on the other side: “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?” Paul’s conclusion, telling us to remain steadfast and devoted to the Lord’s work, could serve as a Lenten motto. The reading from Sirach provides a series of adages regarding discipline of the tongue, and of our speech. Maybe not a bad Lenten practice to observe. Even Jesus in Luke’s Gospel gets into the act, encouraging a cleansing of the heart (“A clean heart create for me, God” we will sing in Psalm 51 during Lent), so that from the goodness of our heart we will bring good into the world. Of course, these insights from Sirach, Paul, and Luke serve us quite well year-round. What we truly do “in the Lord” is never done in vain.

IS THIS ON THE TEST?

Today’s reading from Sirach reminds us not to praise others before they speak, “for it is then that people are tested.” Jesus, in Luke’s Gospel, takes it a step further, reminding us that we are also known by the fruit borne in our lives. It doesn’t take long to think of a person or group of people who speak beautiful, praiseworthy words, and yet their lives are unfruitful, or their lives outright contradict their speech. This is the class of people we call “hypocrites,” and it’s clear in all the Gospels that Jesus has no time for them. Our speech does test us, but the test is really to demonstrate that there is a connection between what we say and how we live. Expressed another way, this is the age-old discussion about faith and works. A truly deep-rooted faith will bear fruit in the works, in the actions of our lives. As happens so often in discipleship, we are dealing with the both/and, not either/or.

TALKING HEARTS

As disciples who follow Jesus, we believe that we are following God’s very Word-made-Flesh. The theological term for this is In-carn-ation, the “in-flesh-made” second person of the Trinity. As followers of the Word, our words are truly important. Our hearts and mouths are wired together, as Jesus tells us today: “from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.” This is yet another echo of the wisdom of Sirach: “Speech discloses the bent of a person’s heart.” Eventually, our words—and the other actions of our lives—will convey what is truly in our hearts. Perhaps the ultimate test of our discipleship is not merely our words, or even our actions, but on a deeper level the test is whether or not others will find in us God’s word “in-flesh-made.” Our mission is to be the Word-made-flesh, in the flesh again in our own place and time.

TODAY’S READINGS

Sirach 27:4–7

Psalm 92:2–3, 13–14, 15–16

1 Corinthians 15:54–58

Luke 6:39–45

Please join us for our live Synod Listening Session, which will take place in the parish hall on Tuesday, March 1 at 7:00 pm. Since March 1 is also “Fat Tuesday,” we will also host food and drink in the hall beginning at 6:30.

Pope Francis’ has said that the intention of this process is “to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make hopes flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships, to learn from one another, to build bridges, to enlighten minds, warm hearts and restore strength to our hands for our common mission.”

These are the topics Pope Francis has asked us to consider in the Listening Sessions. Under each topic are reflection questions you can use to help you address the topics:

“Listening and Speaking”

- Who is and who is not walking together with Jesus Christ in the Church today?
- In recent years, how has our Church “journeyed together” by providing opportunities for people to be heard?
- In recent years, how have we ignored or even excluded the voices of people on the margins of society and the sidelines of the Church?
- What keeps us from speaking with courage and charity on what matters to us for the life of the Church?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through intentional listening and speaking to one another in the coming years?

“Celebrating”

- In recent years, how have experiences of prayer and the celebration of the liturgy (Mass and the sacraments) deepened our communion with God and with each other?
- In recent years, how have experiences of prayer and the celebration of the liturgy (Mass and the sacraments) guided our common life and mission?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through a richer celebration of the liturgy in the years to come?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting us to promote Sunday Mass attendance and active participation in the celebration of the liturgy?

“Going on Mission”

- In recent years, how have we called every baptized person to participate in the mission to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
- In recent years, how have we encouraged people to use their spiritual gifts for mission in the world? the coming years?

- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully with a clear sense of our common mission to proclaim the Gospel in
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to focus on forming people as missionary disciples of Jesus?

“Dialoguing”

- In recent years, how have we dialogued with people of other religions and people with no religious affiliation?
- In recent years, how have we learned from and contributed to other sectors of society (culture, politics, and economics)?
- In recent years, how have we collaborated in mission with Christians of other traditions and denominations?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through intentional dialogue in the years to come?
- To which issues in society might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to pay closer attention?

“Discerning and Deciding”

- In recent years, how have we intentionally listened to the voice of the Holy Spirit as a Church?
- In recent years, how have we identified needs within the Church and the world and how to address them?
- In recent years, how have our decision-making processes encouraged or discouraged wider consultation within the Church?
- How might the Church be invited to “journey together” more fully through individual and communal listening to the Spirit in the years to come?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to “journey together” more fully through consultative decision-making in the years to come?

“Growing in Synodality”

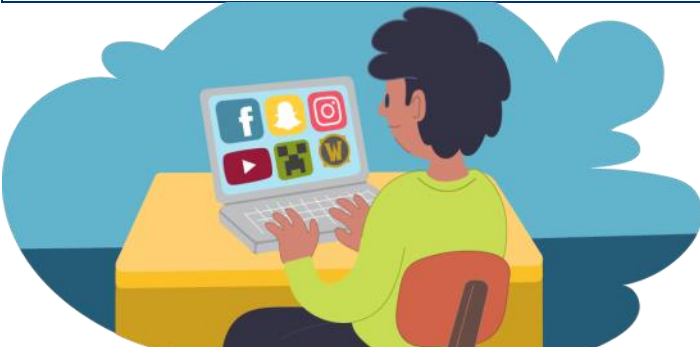

- What are you learning about communion through the Synod process?
- What are you learning about participation through the Synod process?
- What are you learning about mission through the Synod process?
- How might the Holy Spirit be inviting our Church to form people to “journey together” to live communion, to achieve participation, and to be open to mission?

As you think of possibilities, perhaps pay attention to the ideas that give you clarity, enthusiasm, peace, and hope (these may be an indication of the promptings of the Holy Spirit).

Safeguard The Children

Decide on online safety rules for your family

If your children use the internet or social media, you will want to decide how, when, and where they can use it. Review privacy settings on apps, games, and websites, and talk to your children about how to keep their information private and safe. Check in often to make sure your children are following the rules and update accordingly as apps update or technology changes. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Revisit Online Safety Practices” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Come Journey with Us During Lent as We Experience the Unconditional Love Christ Has for Us!
