Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

A Blessed Palm Sunday to you! Thanks to all of you who came to our communal Penance Service last Tuesday evening. You filled the church and I'm grateful to our visiting priests who heard your confessions for over two hours! I can only imagine the spiritual benefits that will enhance our parish community as we reconciled ourselves to the Lord!

Thank you for your donations in support of the people of Ukraine. In the last Archdiocesan report, parishes have donated over $160,000. Let us pray for an end to this war and may all who have lost their lives through the cross of war, share in Christ's eternal embrace and love.

This week the Church goes on Retreat with the beautiful liturgies of Holy Week. Below is our Holy Week schedule. Take time to pray with your St. Joseph community and enter into the Passion, Death and Resurrection of the Lord! I'm praying for you and your families!

Holy Week Blessings,
Msgr. Kevin

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

HYMNS TO BE REMEMBERED

One of the best ways to remember something truly important is to set it to music. It can be easily recalled and sung by heart and passed on. As you focus on the scriptures for Palm Sunday, it might be helpful to think of them as past, present, and future versions of the same story. In Isaiah, we hear one of four hymns referring to the “Suffering Servant” that paints a poignant picture prefiguring Jesus’ crucifixion. “I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting.” Psalm 22’s refrain is some of the last words spoken by Jesus on the cross. The Philippians hymn is one of the most beloved and poignant passages ever, “Christ . . . becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” All of these are songs, hymns to be remembered.

DO YOU KNOW THE STORY?

We might assume that we know the scriptures and tend to tune out something as difficult to comprehend as the Passion of Christ. What we often end up doing is taking all four of the Gospels and sort of mixing the accounts into one story. The theologian Gerhard Lohfink called this “making Gospel Soup.” Today’s Passion is from the Gospel of Luke, and there are some elements that are very different from Matthew and Mark (the other synoptic Gospels read in Lectionary years A and B), and John’s Gospel text which is always proclaimed on Good Friday. Let’s look at the elements that are specific to Luke as we break the Passion into five sections.

THE LUKAN PASSION

Lord’s Supper (22:14–38) Luke portrays Jesus as fiery and working for justice, both in his passion and in his ministry. The Passover feast is a very special time for the disciples, and while they are being commissioned, it is clear that they do not understand yet how they will carry on; Jesus warns them to protect them from evil.

Mount of Olives (22:39–53) Luke’s Jesus doesn’t seem as desolate as in other accounts about his imminent death, and goes to pray in regular fashion. He calls out his betrayer by name, hinting at foreshadowing of knowledge.

Peter’s Denial – Sanhedrin (22:54–71) One can see the special care Jesus takes for Peter, and the scene takes place in the courtyard where Jesus was earlier abused as prophet.

Trials before Pilate and Herod (23:1–25) In this account Pilate and Herod both proclaim Jesus to be innocent, and this heals a “rift” between them. Jesus is good even to those who maltreat him.

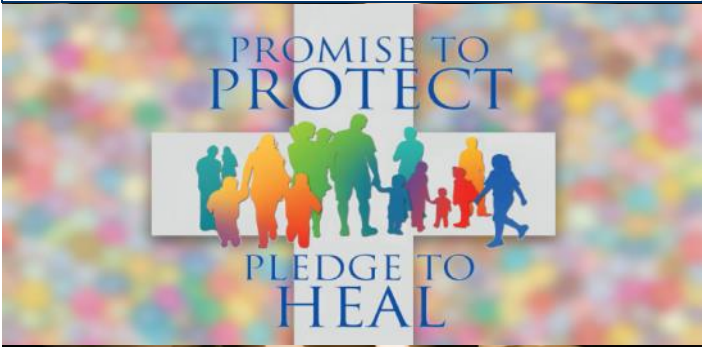

Crucifixion, Death, and Burial (23:26–56)
There are no soldiers; it is the chief priests who take Jesus to Pilate. Jesus’ words on the Cross are kind: “Father forgive them.” In Mark’s Gospel both criminals mocked Jesus, but here one of them begs forgiveness, and Jesus grants him salvation. Jesus’ last words show a sign of trust: “Father, into your hands . . .” May we also place our trust in God as we enter into Holy Week.

TODAY’S READINGS

Luke 19:28–40
Isaiah 50:4–7
Psalm 22:8–9, 17–18, 19–20, 23–24
Philippians 2:6–11

THE STORY OF FATHER "BUD" KIESER

OCRSwest invites you to an exciting online screening event!

MARTIN SHEEN CATHERINE HICKS BOB NEWHART ED BEGLEY, JR. ANA ALCIA JOHN AMOS

Throughout the Sixties and Seventies, Fr. Ellwood "Bud" Kieser was one of the most well known Catholics in America. His TV show, Insight, was broadcast across the country and featured the biggest names in Hollywood.

Fr. Bud in Africa

But Fr. Bud's life would take a dramatic turn in 1980 after being invited on a publicity trip to the famine in Central Africa by Catholic Relief Services. What he experienced there would change his ministry forever.

Hollywood Priest is a fun, profound, and entertaining documentary about a priest who not only found a way to live out his calling in Tinseltown, but who eventually learned that there is little salvation outside of the poor.

St. Joseph Fair

Where friends and family come to play
April 29-May 1, 2022

Dear Friend and Potential Sponsor;

I hope and pray that this finds you and your family doing well! The St. Joseph Fair is returning after a two-year absence due to the pandemic. The St. Joseph's community hopes that you will return by considering a Sponsorship for the Fair. We want you to know all proceeds positively impact both St. Joseph Parish and the Long Beach community!

Want to know where and how your sponsorship money is utilized? Look at the great things we are able to achieve because of your tax- deductible donation:

- The parish distribution was used to help offset the cost for the recent church upgrades including the installation of the new central air conditioning/heating system. Funds also helped to fund the costs for the recent electrical upgrade on the St. Joseph Campus.
- The school used the funds to upgrade lighting and installed new windows in the classrooms.
- Your gifts assisted us to upgrade, modernize and beautify our 65 year-old campus!

Please review the attached sponsorship form to see which level is best suited for you and may the Lord bless you for your generosity.

Thank you for your consideration and support.

Sincerely yours,
