Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the 3rd Sunday of Easter and in our Gospel we meet the post resurrected Jesus who appears to his apostles and reminds them that the Scriptures are now fulfilled. Jesus reminds the disciples and all of us that His name must be preached to all the nations for, “We are witnesses of these things.”

Last week our Landscape Company did their annual trimming of the trees on the field. That means one thing - our Parish Fair is only three weeks away! Thanks for supporting the Fair through the purchase of the opportunity tickets. It takes hundreds of volunteers to make the weekend a success and please sign up to volunteer! Check out the Fair tables in front of the residence garages after all the Masses this weekend!

This weekend I will use part of the homily time to share with our community some good news including an update on the forward movement on the Hall/Gym upgrade.

I know many of you are concerned about how I did in the Men’s NCAA Tournament Challenge Bracket!! I was correct in 45.7% of my picks and I ranked 14.5M – that’s million! None of my Catholic College pics got to the Final – congrats to UConn!

On a more truly evangelistic note – last weekend it was a joy to welcome into the Church our 4 candidates from other faiths who made a Profession of Faith, celebrated their First Communion and for John and Robert received the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation! Welcome to our four newest Catholics:

Have a Blessed Easter Week,
Msgr. Kevin

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Sometimes when God appears in our path, we do not recognize him. In these moments, Jesus invites us to reach out and touch him. Remember that Christ is real, Christ is alive, and Christ stands before each one of us — so reach out. Touch him.

Saint of the week

St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, was the most prolific Christian missionary of all time. Due to a miraculous experience that he had on the road to Damascus, he went from persecuting early Christians to traveling all over the region preaching the Gospel of Jesus.

Prayer in Times of Darkness

Dear Jesus,
When I feel troubled, alone, frightened, be with me. Be a flicker of flame in this darkness.
Help me to know you in the stark
seasons as I do in times of elation.
You are the light I seek.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, “If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!” As a lifelong late-arriver, it’s something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the “it counts” is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous “Road to Emmaus” story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus’ presence in the “breaking of the bread.”

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that’s precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

The Prophets

Messengers of God's Mercy

If we consider that God is the Divine Bridegroom and the Church is his Bride, then the prophets can be seen as “spiritual marriage counselors.” They afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted, calling us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom.

St. Joseph Church will begin a ten-week Bible study Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy on Thursday, April 18th at 7:00pm in the PLC and on Zoom. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, please contact Mike at mike@stjosephlb.org or call 562-370-0769.
