Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Greetings and I hope your September transitions are going well and are peaceful. September 14th on the Church's liturgical calendar is always the celebration of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Because September 14th is a Sunday this year, the Exaltation of the Cross has precedence over Ordinary Time. Today I'm thinking about the number of times that I make the Holy Cross a part of my life every time I make the Sign of the Cross. Making the Sign of the Cross on our bodies is not just a gesture, it is a holy action with a plethora of meanings: we have a relationship with the Holy Trinity, we can speak directly to God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we are saved by the cross of Christ, we are made in the image of God, through the cross death is no more, the promise of the cross leads to resurrection and through the cross I will live forever in eternal life. There's a lot to unfold and unpack - every time we make that simple liturgical action of signing our bodies with the Holy Cross!

As I am away this weekend, a special welcome to our San Pedro Regional Bishop, Bishop Marc Trudeau, who will celebrate all three Sunday Masses. Thank you, Bishop Marc, for being here celebrating the Eucharist with the St. Joe's family!

Next weekend is the Women's Welcome retreat #5. Please pray this week for the women preparing to make the retreat and pray for Team #5 offering the retreat. Only a few spots remain for the Men's Welcome Retreat! Men of God -sign up now!!

The Season of Fall starts on Monday, September 22. Enjoy this last week of summer.

Blessings,
Msgr. Kevin

A Message From Our Pastor

Last Sunday, one of our parishioners who attended a past Men's Welcome Retreat spoke at all the Masses and inspired us with a testimony about how the Welcome Weekend changed his life. Here is another one of the testimonies:

Hi, I'm Jamar Tolentino a husband and father of two young boys that attend St Joseph's. Around Covid I started feeling very uncertain of the world and became restless which led to me losing a lot of sleep. I went to the doctor, and she told me that I was suffering from anxiety. I was able to manage it a couple years for the most part by going back to the gym and surfing. Then it started getting out of control again. I'd be irritated and anxious around people, even amongst family and friends. It wasn't until it got too overwhelming that I had no other choice but to pray to God and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. That was the best decision, and it changed my life! Immediately peace started flowing back into my life and I felt like everything was going to be alright. I started going back to church every Sunday and praying every day. One day at church Monsignor Kevin mentioned the Welcome Christ Renews His Parish retreat and told me how great it would be to do it. I asked him what it was, and he told me it was a weekend retreat to strengthen my relationship with God. I was a little hesitant at first because of the time commitment but I was so grateful to God for the changes in my life that I decided to give that up for Him and commit. I didn't realize how powerful the retreat was going to be for me. Even though I went to church every Sunday and prayed every night my relationship with God was still not as strong as it could be. During the retreat, I realized other men were going through seasons in their life too and when we turned to God and the Bible for the answer, it brought us peace. I created a bond with these men and now I'm able to talk about my challenges in life and find the answer through prayer and scripture. I highly recommend this Men's Retreat on September 27 & 28 to connect with God in a deeper and more meaningful way, allowing you to find peace and to become the best version of yourself.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"We have sinned in complaining against the LORD
and you.
Pray the LORD to take the serpents from us." (Nm 21:7)

Do not forget the works of the Lord! (Ps 78)

Second Reading:

He humbled himself,
becoming obedient to death,
even death on a cross. (Phil 2:8)

Gospel:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might not perish
but might have eternal life. (Jn 3:16)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

God did not send his son into the world to condemn it.
The cross is not a symbol of judgment — the cross is what mercy looks like when it is lived out. How will we bring the cross into our lives this week? How will we live the mercy which has saved us?

Devotions, Explained!

A litany is an ancient form of prayer incorporating repetitive refrains (often "hear our prayer" or "pray for us"). Litanies are used in a variety of liturgical settings and in both private and public acts of devotion.

Prayer of Love

Dear God,
Expand my heart in new ways
today,
to understand the love You have
for me,
to take that love deeply into myself,
and to act from that love.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One of my favorite movies is the 1991 comedy What About Bob? Bill Murray plays a troubled, paranoid hypochondriac named Bob Wiley who innocently but annoyingly hounds Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfuss. Bob is paralyzed by his fear of, well, everything, and is convinced the psychologist can heal him. But Dr. Marvin's failed attempts to heal Bob end up driving the doctor to attempt to murder Bob. He fails. The surprise is that, having faced death head on, Bob is suddenly healed. He attributes his healing to Dr. Marvin for breakthrough "death therapy." In facing the cause of his deepest illness and dysfunction, Bob is healed.

Underneath this light-hearted comedy is a dead-serious resonance with this week's feast: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Christ is lifted up on the cross to force us to face the truth of sin and death. In that reckoning we find healing. Like Moses' snake on a pole, the cross says: this is what is causing your sickness – rebellion, disobedience, sin. Look at it! Don't run from it. Now seeing it exposed, we see life. We see our physician mercifully healing us. In this sense, we are all like Bob Wiley. The "death therapy" of the cross is our only hope for healing.

This week I invite you to "exalt the cross." If you don't have one in your house, get one. Use it for prayer. Gaze on it frequently. It teaches us to not be afraid. It heals us.

— Father John Muir

Back to school season is a good time to refresh children on internet safety

Back-to-school season is an ideal time to refresh internet safety rules with the children in your care. For example, it is helpful to establish clear guidelines like what types of sites children can visit, apps they can download, and when they can have access to electronics. Families can also consider “blackout” periods that require disconnection – possibly during dinner and leading up to bedtime. Netsmartz (<https://www.missingkids.org/netsmartz>) offers resources for keeping children and teens safe online.
