Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time and the first full week of the Season of Autumn! In this weekend's Gospel, we meet an unnamed rich man and a poor man named Lazarus, who dreams about eating the scraps of food from the rich man's table. Every parable of Jesus is really a story about us and we are invited to discover a part of us in both characters. Today's readings are meant to provoke us to sharpen our senses and sensitivity. What do we choose to focus on and what do we intentionally block out? When we see need, do we evaluate the one in need or do we evaluate our own response? May this weekend's readings, heighten our awareness to take care of those in need!

In 1989, I was Knighted as a member of the Knights and Dames of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. The Order's mandate originates from the time of the Crusades over 1000 years ago, who under a Pontifical decree were ordered to protect the Christian pilgrims, traveling to the Sacred Sites in the Holy Land. We are a Pontifical Order consisting of 30,000 members working in 60 countries around the world. We support the Catholic Church and Christian communities in the Holy Land through prayers, financial aid for religious and charitable institutions, and efforts to preserve the Christian presence in the region. Every year our Western Lieutenancy of the United States meets to discuss our financial support to the Latin Patriarch for distribution to parishes, churches, seminaries, clinics and humanitarian aid for food and medical supplies in the Holy Land, which includes the territories of Israel, Jordan, and the Palestinian territories. Each year we rotate the meeting hosted by one of the 10 dioceses in our west coast Lieutenancy. This year, the Diocese of Honolulu is hosting, and our meeting will be held in Kona, Hawaii. The situation in the Holy Land is dire since tourism, the major source of economic sustenance has been nonexistent since that fateful day on October 7. Many Christians have fled the Holy Land seeking a better way of life for their families in the midst of war and economic deprivation. The Christian presence is now less than 2%. Last year, our Western Lieutenancy with over 1,200 members contributed over $1 million to the Latin Patriarch in support of the Church's good works in the Holy Land. Please pray for all of us during next weekend's meeting and pray especially for the Peace of Jerusalem.

I'm praying for you and your families,

Msgr. Kevin

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with. (Am 6:7)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The rich man had a chance, every day of his life, to choose righteousness. But righteousness wasn't convenient for him. He discovered too late that the only time we have to follow God is now. Here. This moment.
Will we take our chance?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later? And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.

A Special Thank You

We extend our sincere gratitude to Monsignor Kevin, whose guidance and support made it possible to bring Welcome Christ Renews His Parish to St. Joseph Church.

Last weekend, St. Joseph Parish celebrated its fifth Women's Welcome Christ Renews His Parish Retreat. The two-day retreat was led by women of our parish, with Monsignor Kevin serving as Spiritual Guide. Participants experienced the power of the Holy Spirit and were renewed in the presence of Our Lord. During the retreat, Monsignor Kevin introduced the participants and team members to the 10:30 a.m. congregation and offered them a blessing. The retreat was a grace-filled experience for the participants, as well as for the Lay Formation and Support Teams.

✨ Men's Retreat This Weekend ✨

Please keep in your prayers our Men's Welcome Christ Renews His Parish retreat taking place this weekend. We ask the Holy Spirit to guide every detail so that the retreat flows smoothly and all who are involved may be strengthened with wisdom, energy, grace, and joyful hearts.

May the men attending the retreat be renewed in Christ, touched by the power of the Holy Spirit, and encouraged to grow in faith. May this retreat deepen their connection with God, with one another, and with our St. Joseph Parish community.

Forms of cyber bullying

With the widespread use of mobile devices, more and more children are susceptible to cyber bullying, which has far-reaching consequences. Cyber bullying can take many forms, including cruel messages via text or social media, the distribution of photoshopped pictures designed to mock an individual, forwarding "private" photos or videos, and pretending to be someone else on a social media site. Victims of cyber bullying often suffer from depression, isolation, and can even become suicidal. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Cyber-Bullying: Protecting Young People from Technology Dangers" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
