Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year. The 34 Sundays of Ordinary Time culminates with the annual Solemnity of "Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe." This is the last Sunday we listen to the Gospel of Luke and the Lucan version of King Jesus places us on the hill of Golgotha witnessing the crucifixion of Jesus between two other broken men. While our King was humbled and beaten, he trusted in His Father's love and his victory over death is our victory. You are a person of amazing faith and remember that King Jesus is with you to help you overcome all the battles, struggles and difficulties in your life!

Just a reminder that our annual Thanksgiving Day Mass is this Thursday, Thanksgiving Day at 9:00 AM. If you would like a special blessing over the bread and wine that will grace your dinner table, please bring them to the church and place them on the steps in front of the Altar before Mass.

Next Sunday, we commence the beginning of the liturgical year with a season of Advent! This weekend we offer you the annual Parish gift of a little booklet called "Daily Reflections for Advent and Christmas - Waiting in Joyful Hope." We invite you to prepare for the celebration of Christ's coming at Christmas with this popular and inviting Advent guide. The author, Mary DeTurris Poust is a writer, retreat leader, spiritual director, and author of numerous books on Catholic spirituality. Her daily, brief and down-to-earth reflections, accompanied by prayer and scripture will enhance and inspire your Advent journey. Please pick up a book, one per family to be shared and offer three minutes a day to the Lord, and you will make it a great Advent!

Scroll down and join us for an Advent experience of Contemplation!

During this Thanksgiving week, St. John Paul II once said, "We must find time to stop and thank the people who make a difference in our lives." Thank you for making a difference in my life and the life of your Parish family!

Wishing you a blessed and joyful Thanksgiving week!

Msgr. Kevin

2025 THANKSGIVING FAMILY BLESSING

SCRIPTURE READING: FROM THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE:

AS HE WAS ENTERING A VILLAGE, TEN PERSONS WITH LEPROSY MET HIM.
THEY STOOD AT A DISTANCE FROM HIM AND RAISED THEIR VOICES, SAYING, “JESUS, MASTER! HAVE PITY ON US!” AND WHEN HE SAW THEM, HE SAID,

“GO SHOW YOURSELVES TO THE PRIESTS.”

AS THEY WERE GOING, THEY WERE CLEANSED.
AND ONE OF THEM, REALIZING HE HAD BEEN HEALED, RETURNED, GLORIFYING GOD IN A LOUD VOICE;
AND HE FELL AT THE FEET OF JESUS AND THANKED HIM.

Leader: That we may always appreciate the gift of family, we pray...

All: We give thanks to the Lord.

Leader: That our children will be safe and grow in God's love, we pray...

All: We give thanks to the Lord.

Leader: That we may always share our blessings with those in need, we pray...

All: We give thanks to the Lord.

Leader: That we will always see and cherish the image of God in everyone, we pray...

All: We give thanks to the Lord.

Leader: For an end to violence in the world and for peace in the Middle East and Ukraine, we pray...

All: We give thanks to the Lord.

Leader & All: God most provident, we join all creation in raising to you a hymn of Thanksgiving through Jesus Christ, your Son.

For generation upon generation, peoples of this land have sung of your bounty; we too offer you praise for the rich harvest we have received at your hands.
Bless us and this food and drink which we share with grateful hearts. Continue to make our land and lives fruitful and let our love be shown to others as we gather around this beautiful table of abundance.

Praise and glory to you, Lord God, now and forever!

AMEN

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Our king wears a crown of thorns, not a crown of gold. His glory is not in riches but in suffering. His law is written in his own blood, shed for the love of us. Do we understand the gift that it is, to be subject to such a king?

Observances for the week of November 23, 2025

- Sunday: Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Monday: St. Andrew Dung-Lac, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs
Tuesday: St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin and Martyr
Thursday: Thanksgiving Day

Devotions, Explained!

The Jesse Tree is an Advent practice which recounts the history of salvation by tracing the lineage of Christ — the foretold "shoot from the stump of Jesse" who will bring peace and unity to the people of God (Isaiah 11:1).

Jesus is King

Dear Jesus,
I see the kingdom you love,
the one full of the broken and forgotten.
I see the crown you wear —
thorns out of love for me.
I pick you as my King.
Mold my heart to be a worthy
member of your kingdom.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Not long ago, I was called to a hospital to anoint a woman in her early 80s. She was dying, and visibly in pain. But what struck me most wasn't her suffering — it was the atmosphere in the room. She had eight children and 30 foster kids, and many of them were gathered around her. You'd expect sorrow, fear, maybe even despair. But the room was filled with something else entirely — a quiet strength, a kind of sweetness. It was as if she was suffering not just with them, but for them. And they, in love, were suffering for her. The pain was real. But so was the peace. I didn't want to run. I felt as if I was in a little paradise, beeping machines and all.

I think of that moment when I hear today's Gospel. Jesus, hanging on the cross, doesn't look like a king. But one of the crucified, dying men beside him sees through the suffering and says, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Luke 23:42). That word — remember — literally means to make someone a member again. He's asking to be joined to Christ, to become part of his Body. And Jesus says, "Today you will be with me in paradise."

He doesn't say, "I'll take your suffering away." He says, "You will be with me."

That's the strange power of Christ the King. He doesn't rule by avoiding suffering. He reigns by entering into it, and transforming it with love.

What are you suffering right now in your life? Likely you want it to stop. But if we are willing to suffer with him — paradise begins even today.

— Father John Muir

Facts about psychological grooming

A few weeks ago, we looked at physical grooming and how predators use it to lure victims. Another type of grooming is psychological, in which a predator spends a great deal of time with his or her victim, showering them with attention and making the victim feel a shared connection. When the predator becomes a peer to the child, then he has control. He can then offer special treatment — or threaten to take away that treatment, and even make threats against the child’s family, pets, and other friends. For more information about psychological grooming, read the VIRTUS® article “The Grooming Process” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Senior Group

Hello all you St. Joseph Seniors,

Our St. Joseph Senior Social Group has been meeting once a month at the El Dorado Golf Course Restaurant for breakfast. We will have one more breakfast meeting at the El Dorado on Monday, December 8 at 9:30am.

This will be a Christmas breakfast, and we are asking everyone to bring a nice "white elephant" gift, wrapped, and we will draw numbers to pick a gift... It will be a fun morning to celebrate the beginning of the Christmas Season. It is also a Holy Day - The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, so we can go to 8:00 am Mass and then to the El Dorado Restaurant. Then the exciting news is that we will begin having our regular Senior Social Group gatherings in our new St. Joseph Center starting in January 2026.

Meditation

St. Joseph's Meditation Group currently meets every Tuesday evening at 7:00PM via Zoom. Our weekly session is based on the teachings of Fr.

John Main, OSB. Meditation is an age-old Christian practice and open to everyone. No experience is required and beginners are welcome.
