Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the Third Sunday of Advent! The liturgical calendar declares that Christmas is less than two weeks away. Are you ready? I don't mean are you ready with all the necessary preparations such as tree trimming, baking, wrapping gifts, etc. That will all get done! Are you ready to welcome the Lord Jesus Christ into your life this Christmas? Are you spiritually ready to welcome the King to be the Lord of your universe? This weekend's Scriptures reflect on the theme of waiting. I often find waiting to be boring and even irritating. I like to do things and see results. Advent recalls that our Jewish Brothers and Sisters waited for centuries for the arrival of the Messiah. Waiting involves patience and as we wait for Christmas, we're invited to meaningful waiting. The divine presence is with us as we wait, and as we perform all the dutiful activities in preparation for Christmas!

As you scrolled down to read this you saw our Christmas Mass Schedule. As you're informing your family to gather on Christmas at the house at such a time and dinner is at this time, take time to invite your family members to attend Christmas Mass together. Remind them that this is Christ's day and when your family surrenders to Christ, you will receive the best Christmas gift – our Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanks to all of you who went shopping this past week for the families who will be served at Christmas. Thanks to our school children who are bringing food every Advent Tuesday to fill the Christmas boxes.

Scroll down and see the flyer to Bless the Christmas Tree. After the last string of lights is wrapped around the tree, and the last bulb is put in place, gather with your family around the tree and offer a blessing, reminding you that the lights adorning the Christmas tree are a symbol of the light of Christ present in your home!

Be faithful to the Little Advent Reflection Book – I'm praying for you!

Msgr. Kevin

Blessing Of A CHRISTMAS TREE

(Begin with the tree lights off)

My Brothers and Sisters,

Amidst signs and wonders Christ Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea: his birth brings joy to our hearts and enlightenment to our minds. With this tree, decorated and adorned, may we welcome Christ among us; may its lights guide us to the perfect light.

Intercessions:

Let us ask God to send his blessing upon us and upon this sign of our faith in the Lord.

℟. Lord, give light to our hearts.

That this tree of lights may remind us of the tree of glory on which Christ accomplished our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

℟. Lord, give light to our hearts.

That the joy of Christmas may always be in our homes, let us pray to the Lord.

℟. Lord, give light to our hearts.

That the peace of Christ may dwell in our hearts and in the world, let us pray to the Lord.

℟. Lord, give light to our hearts.

With confident faith let us pray as Christ taught us:

All: Our Father...

Blessing of a Christmas Tree

Lord God,

Let your blessing come upon us as we illumine this tree.

May the light and cheer it gives
be a sign of the joy that fills our hearts.

May all who delight in this tree
come to the knowledge and joy of salvation.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

(Turn the tree lights on)

First Reading:

Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return

sorrow and mourning will flee. (Isa 35:10)

Psalm:

Lord, come and save us. (Ps 146)
OR Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Be patient, brothers and sisters,

"Go and tell John what you hear and see:
the blind regain their sight,
the lame walk,
lepers are cleansed,
the deaf hear,
the dead are raised,
and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them."

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Go and tell what you have seen and heard," Jesus says. When it comes to proving who he is, he always lets his actions do the talking. We have heard. We have seen. We must go and tell. Let's let our actions do the talking. Who do we think Jesus is?

Observances for the week of December 14, 2025

Devotions, Explained!

Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared to Juan Diego in Mexico City in 1531. The Patroness of the Americas, Our Lady of Guadalupe is a beloved symbol of faith, motherhood and identity. Her feast day is Dec. 12.

Prayer for Advent - New Growth

Dear God,
Bring new life! Your love creates and cultivates.
Bring Your power into the places I think of as "deserts"
and your grace to the prayers I
fear may be "deserted."
You can redeem and restore,
bring a new song to my heart.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was 11, I was riding my bike on a Friday night in Scottsdale, Arizona. I saw giant spotlights swirling in the sky. Something amazing had to be happening. I pedaled after them with excitement. Sweaty and tired, I arrived, only to find a used car lot. Bright lights, flapping banners, inflatable balloon men swaying wildly in the wind. I stood there, heart sinking. All that spectacle, and all my effort ... for this?

As life proceeds, we learn what it is like to pursue promising but fruitless searches. This week we hear Jesus ask the crowds regarding John the Baptist: “What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?” (Matthew 11:7). He’s not just describing the crowd’s mis-aimed pursuit. He’s naming our tendency to chase after what’s flashy but flimsy.

What are our swaying reeds? For me, it is endless video reels on my phone, worldly pleasures, entertainment in sports, and the good opinion of others. Inflated distractions that bend whichever way the wind blows. But they can’t satisfy my soul. What are your flimsy reeds?

John the Baptist wasn’t a swaying reed. He was rooted, grounded, unafraid to speak the solid truth. The people went to see him because, deep down, they were starving for something real.

This Advent, the Church asks us to reassess: What are we really looking for? Are we chasing the dazzling but hollow? Or are we seeking what is solid and lasting — that which points to Christ?

God sent prophets at critical times to call the people back to their covenant relationship with him. Prophets proclaimed the consequences of continued sin, called people to repentance, and declared God's faithful love. They also spoke of the future to shed light on current events and to reveal God's plans and purposes.

In The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy, discover how God is constantly calling you to a deeper relationship with him, as well as the ways you are called to be the voice of God to others.

“I love this study! ... Now we know where they were when they said it, why they said it. Thomas was so clear. He illuminated it so well that it was easy to understand.”

IF YOU WERE ASKED ABOUT...

THE CRUSADES,
THE INQUISITION,
"THE DARK AGES",
THE GALILEO AFFAIR,

WHAT WOULD YOU SAY?

Do you know your family history? The history of the Church is the story of our family. It is the epic story of our ancestors in the Faith – the heroic men and women who shaped civilization and spread the Gospel throughout the world. Knowing this story is crucial to our identity as Catholics. Just as we would uncover exciting and interesting stories of our ancestors through the study of our family genealogy, we can uncover our Catholic past through the study of Church history.

Many in our society misunderstand and even attack our Church for the supposed misdeeds of the past. Topics such as the Crusades, the "Inquisition", and Galileo are used in an attempt to discredit the Church and her role in the world. What is the truth concerning these events and persons? How can you answer the objections?

Join us for this exciting journey through Church history and you will:

- Learn about the major people, places, and events of the two-thousand years of Church history.
- Remember the 12 time periods of Church history using a unique color-coded system.
- Learn the true story of the Crusades .
- Discover the revolutionary character of the Protestant Reformation.
- Discover the massive persecution of Christians in the 20th century.
- See the workings of the Holy Spirit throughout Church history and much more!

Watch out for fire dangers

Christmas is a popular time to decorate with candles and electric lights, both inside and out of the house. These decorations can be beautiful and festive but also come with the risk of fires. Parents should make sure to keep candles out of reach of children, and off surfaces where they could be easily knocked over. All lights should be checked for faulty wires or other defective parts that could cause a fire. For more information, read the "Holiday Safety" article on nsc.org/community-safety/safety-topics/seasonal-safety/winter-safety/holiday?/.
