Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the end of the Christmas Season as we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus Christ. Following the birth of Christ, the scriptures are silent for almost 30 years about the quiet work of the Holy Family. Mary and Joseph watch as their Son grows up during his childhood, teenage and young adult years. Suddenly, he appears in the desert at the Jordan River, standing in line and seeking Baptism from his cousin, John the Baptist. As we will hear in the Gospel account, Jesus is reminded of his identity as a beloved Son. As Jesus and all of those along the river hear the Father say, "With you, I am well pleased!" The tender account of the relationship between Jesus and his Father can remind us of the most basic human desire: the desire that a child may be pleasing in the eyes of his or her parents. No matter the age, nothing builds up a child more than to hear from a parent, "I am so proud of you. I am so pleased with you." We also possess that same identity and estimation, thanks to our Baptism. We are all beloved, daughters and sons of the Father who is pleased with us. Sit quietly with this phrase and let it wash over you - embrace the truth of God's kindness and generous love that is given to each of us at our Baptism!

This Monday, January 12, our Senior Group returns to our new Parish Center for their gatherings twice a month. If you are 55 years or over, you belong! Stop by between 10:30 AM and 1:30 PM for games, food, fun and camaraderie. Scroll down for further information.

This past week, the basketball season commenced in our new Parish Center. Several of our Catholic elementary schools in Long Beach are playing in the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO). Welcome back to your new home and the amazing Taraflex sports floor! Be safe and enjoy the games!!

Blessings on your week,
Msgr. Kevin

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
I have grasped you by the hand;
I formed you, and set you
as a covenant of the people,
a light for the nations. (Is 42:6)

Psalm:

The Lord will bless his people with peace. (Ps 29)

Second Reading:

"In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.
Rather, in every nation whoever fears him
and acts uprightly
is acceptable to him." (Acts 10:34-35)

Gospel:

And a voice came from the heavens, saying,
"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." (Mt 3:17)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

John could not believe that Jesus would seek baptism from him, a lowly mortal man. But our God is a humble God. He does not fear our weakness. He extends his hand, saying, "It is fitting." So take his hand. Begin the work he has set out for you.

Observances for the week of January 11, 2026

Sunday: The Baptism of the Lord
Tuesday: St. Hilary, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
Saturday: St. Anthony, Abbot
Next Sunday: 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Virtues, Explained!

Joy is the experience of achieving what we most desire — and what we most desire is love. God made us in love and for love, and so, in the same way that a flower seeks the sunlight, our souls seek the warmth of true, selfless love.

Blessing for Baptismal Grace

Dear God,
Through Baptism, You called and claimed us as Your own, chosen and loved.
Pour Your blessing upon us as we remember our Baptism.
Plant Your identity in our hearts.
Help us to live as Your beloved.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Apple ran a commercial not long ago called “Behind the Mac – Greatness.” It shows artists and creators, such as Kendrick Lamar, Billie Eilish, and Lady Gaga, working behind their MacBooks. The narration says, “There’s a certain kind of person who doesn’t wait for greatness. They make it.” It’s a compelling message. There’s beauty in using our gifts with passion and purpose. But there lies a hidden weight in that idea: If you are what you make, what happens when you can’t anymore? When the project fails, the passion fades, or the spotlight moves on, where is greatness then?

Today’s Gospel offers a differing vision of greatness. Jesus steps into the Jordan River. He hasn’t preached, healed, or performed a single miracle. Then the heavens open, and the Father speaks: “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” It’s not a reward for success. It’s not earned. Before he does anything “great,” Jesus receives the greatness of his identity from the Father.

And so do you. At your baptism, God said the same thing over you: “You are my beloved.” That is your true identity, not constructed or earned but received. When we see ourselves and others this way, everything changes for the better. We discover a greatness that can never be taken away.

This week, reflect on your baptism: look up the date, thank God for it, pray for those baptized with you, or visit the church where it happened. Let your identity be rooted there.

— Father John Muir

“You are being enriched in every way for all generosity, which through us produces thanksgiving to God.” -2 Cor 9:11.

Christmas Food and Gifts

THANK YOU to everyone that contributed to our Christmas Present Drive Dec. 13-14! We provided over 450 gifts for the 200 children of our 80-parish community supported families! 58 teens received $40 gift cards. Our Family Adoptions provided for 116 children from 35 ADDITIONAL families.

Over 200 parishioners distributed a generous supply of food on Dec. 21 to our assisted families. Over 1,500 lbs. of food was provided by way of $7,000 in Skip-a-Meal donations and our school’s food drive. Please be especially mindful of Skip-a-Meal donations during the holiday season when our needs are greatest.

Essential Home Furnishings: Our holiday distributions provided feedback of many essential home furnishing needs: refrigerator repairs, beds, tables, dressers, heaters, imminent loss of utility service, etc. We have begun to address these. Are you able to help us in this urgent ministry? For many fulfilling ways to serve, please call Tim Clark (562) 431-4385.

Jan. 17-18: Homeless Kit Drive: Provide daily necessities to our brethren experiencing homelessness. Shopping lists will be available in the church on Jan. 10.

Did You Know?

How to advocate with children for their safety

As a safe adult, you have tremendous power to make a profound difference for children – not only by recognizing and responding to unsafe situations, but also by teaching children about their rights to safety and creating environments where they can speak up and get help. There are skills we can teach to children to help them to better protect themselves when faced with tough situations like child sexual abuse or grooming experiences where their boundaries are violated. It is important to make sure children know this, so they don’t feel guilt or shame if abuse does happen, to them or to a friend. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “How to Advocate Directly with Youth for their Safety and Wellbeing” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
