Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family:

Welcome to the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. This Sunday, we hear Saint Paul elaborate on being consecrated to the will of God. Saint Paul makes it very clear that he and all of us are called by God and we did not initiate our own vocation. Paul is talking to the Corinthian community inviting them to be holy together. Perhaps a reflection question for this week is “How you are bringing holiness to the Saint Joseph Parish community”?

Next Sunday commences Catholic Schools week. Our annual School Open house will take place from 9:30 AM until 12:00 PM. Stop by the classrooms and see all the creative work that is being accomplished by our students and visit the Book Fair over in the new Center.

IT'S THAT TIME: The Archdiocese of Los Angeles Annual Appeal called Together in Mission will be upon us in early February. The annual appeal supports our most needy Catholic schools and parishes in Los Angeles. Saint Joseph's has always responded generously and since I have been here, we have always surpassed our goal. This year our goal is $88,695.00. This represents a 10% increase from last year's goal since our ordinary Sunday income has increased since last March. Together in Mission Commitment Sunday is February 8 and as you know, we use the homily time to make our pledge and commitment. Many of you will receive the donor letter in the mail and you can make a pledge or bring the envelope on Sunday, February 8 and we will do it together! Thank you for being so generous to this year's Together in Mission campaign called “This is the Hour for Love”!

Our Center is now in full use with CYO Basketball Monday thru Thursdays. Welcome to the Nine Catholic Long Beach Schools that have made our Center their new home.

Have a Blessed Week,

Msgr. Kevin

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Do we recognize Christ when we see him? Do we have the courage to point him out, to show others who he is? John cried out so the whole world could hear: "He is the Son of God." Always and everywhere, let us do the same.

Virtues, Explained!

Our modern Catholic understanding of peace is derived from the Hebrew concept of shalom, or wholeness, and refers not just to an absence of violence but to a personal reconciliation with one's Creator.

Blessing of the Beloved

Dear God,
Bless and anoint us today. You are our Father and guide.
Remind us of our identity in You: loved, called, and equipped for mission.
Bless us as we journey, giving us strength for each day and grace in each step.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It's common to hear belief in Jesus and the Church mocked as blind faith and credulity. But in reality, it is deeply human and rational. Think about it: we rely on the testimony of others constantly. I trust chemists who certify the safety of toothpaste and cleaning products. I trust engineers when I use a microwave or drive over a bridge. Why? Because they have studied and seen what I have not, and their testimony proves itself in daily life. That kind of trust is not irrational; it is how human knowledge works.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist declares: "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God" (John 1:34). That is the language of an eyewitness. It invites us into a very human act: trusting someone who has directly encountered something — or Someone — we have not yet fully seen ourselves.

The Church's faith is built on this kind of reliable sight-based testimony. The Apostles did not make abstract claims. They saw, followed, suffered for, and proclaimed Jesus Christ. Over centuries, their witness — carried in Scripture, in the lives of the saints, and in the sacramental life of the Church — has proven dependable. We come to know its truth by assenting to it, by living and studying it, praying with it, trusting it.

Faith in Christ is not a childish leap into the dark. It is a step into the light of testimony that proves itself over time.

Testimonials From Parishioners who have attended Welcome Christ Renews His Parish at St. Joseph Church

“I attended the Welcome Christ Renews His Parish retreat at St. Joseph in Long Beach. The witnesses that I heard on my retreat were so moving. The men really opened up and shared their backgrounds that made them the men they are today. It was truly an amazing experience. I've never been in a retreat like that where the men were so authentic and so open with their experiences. It is definitely a retreat all men of God should attend and be a part of the renewal of the church.” Michael Mantong

“I had an amazing experience at Christ Renews His Parish. I met incredible women who shared their spiritual stories with me. I feel closer to the Lord and it deepened my faith and relationship with God.” Minnie DeVico

“Thank you for offering the Welcome Retreat. It has helped me reconnect to several good men and get to know others; I feel my sense of community has expanded for the better.” Paul Farrell

“When I signed up for the first WCRHP retreat at St. Joseph Parish, I had no idea what to expect. It was going to be the first retreat I had ever attended. From the minute I walked through the gate after being greeted by smiling faces and being seated at a table with women I had seen at mass but didn't really know, I felt so comfortable and welcome. The entire two days were a totally spiritual renewal for me, and I had 30 new friends.” Marilyn Nort

Did You Know?

What is needed in a culture of safety?

By prioritizing safeguarding, education about healthy boundaries and access to support for survivors, we create safer learning environments for the children in our care in which we continually share responsibility among program leadership, employees, volunteers, families, and the community. In any culture of safety, the safety of children and vulnerable people is a core value, and all decisions are centered around protecting this safety. Beyond believing in the importance of safety, people within the organization take concrete actions to maintain a safe environment.
