Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

Welcome to the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In this weekend's Gospel, the Pharisees again test Jesus, asking which commandment in the law is the greatest? The Lord responds that you shall love the Lord your God and love your neighbor as yourself. This has been the foundation of Christian teaching since the time of Pentecost almost 2000 years ago – you can't separate love for God and love for neighbor!

Thank you for your World Mission Sunday prayers and generosity. The mission is far from over! We must never forget that 5.5 of the 8.1 billion people on this planet are not Christian. Did you know that prior to 1908, the United States was considered missionary territory. The church grew in America thanks to the support of World Mission Sunday by Catholics way back at the turn-of-the-century. That collection built many of the first churches on American soil, and now we are blessed to care for our needs of our brothers and sisters across the globe.

Trunk or Treat is next Friday in our courtyard. Please register your vehicle and join in the food, festivity and fun. May all our Saint Joe's children be safe as they journey out on Halloween!

Monday, November 2 is All Souls Day! While we will have a Mass here at St. Joseph's at 8:00 AM – it will be brief as I have been honored to be invited to Preside at the annual All Souls Mass at All Souls Cemetery at 10:00 AM. They anticipate that over 1,000 people will attend! If you are free, please come to the cemetery and pray for all the Souls of the Faithful departed.

Our Parish remembrance for parishioners who died this past year will be Saturday, November 14 at 6:00 PM. This Liturgy of the Word Service will be celebrated after the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass in the Church!

Our annual Blanket Drive for the Thanksgiving Distribution to 120 families will take place next weekend. Please bring a new blanket to Mass and some of the blankets will also be distributed to homeless encampments at the end of November. We already have 65 Driver commitments for the Thanksgiving distribution on Saturday, November 21 at 8:30 AM. We still need 20 additional drivers and scroll down in this bulletin to sign up.

We all know the importance of the midterm elections taking place on Tuesday, November 3 and we all know the importance of letting our voice be heard by voting. This year there are 14 ballot propositions. The California Catholic Conference of Bishops offers guidance on political advocacy for Catholic parishioners, emphasizing the importance of engaging in politics with the foundation in Catholic social teaching and ethical principles. The Conference has a 2026 ballot resource guide. Each one of the statewide propositions can shape our states future. I found this guide to be one of the clearest and most helpful analysis of each of the upcoming ballot measures as I am casting my vote. You'll find the principles of Catholic social doctrine to help you form your conscience, discern the issues, and cast an informed vote. Note that the Bishops of California do not endorse or oppose any measure on the ballot. The resource exists solely to help Catholics form their conscience for faithful citizenship. You can find the analysis on the website cacatholic.org and on the homepage, click the link 2026 ballot proposition guide.

As I write this, the Vatican just released the good news that Pope Leo does not need further treatment after his surgery. At the Wednesday audience in Saint Peter's Square this week, the Pope spoke with a strong voice, and he even sang the Our Father. This was just eight days after undergoing lung cancer surgery. May our community continue to pray for the Holy Father and his good health!

Do you know what the Sunshine Protection Act is all about? This proposed US federal law would make daylight saving time permanent. It would eliminate the twice-yearly ritual of changing clocks while keeping the entire country one hour ahead of standard time year-round. The United States House of Representatives passed the bill in July and it currently awaits a vote in the US Senate. Since the Act is not current law, once again, we will change our clocks next weekend. Daylight savings time ends on Sunday, November 1 at 2:00 AM. Before you sleep on Saturday night set your clocks back one hour and enjoy the extra one hour of rest and sleep. We will see you at Church – hopefully, on time!!

Blessings on your week,

Msgr. Kevin

Weekly Scripture

Virtues, Explained!

All human beings have a body, just as all human beings have a soul. Since mankind fractured his relationship with the divine, the inclinations of the body are often at odds with the well-being of the soul.

Through the virtue of chastity, these inclinations become once again integrated.

In the Catechism, we read that chastity "includes an apprenticeship in self-mastery which is a training in human freedom" (CCC 2339). True freedom is impossible when a person is subject to any of his or her passions.

The sins of lust, pornography, and prostitution are principal offenses against the virtue of chastity, because these things undermine the integrity, or wholeness, of the human person's physical and spiritual dimensions.

All people are called to chastity, even those who are not called to celibacy, because all people have a physical self. Chastity is one of the twelve gifts of the Holy Spirit, which sustains moral life.

Psalm

I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Inspiration of the Week

Jesus gives us the greatest commandment: love God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind. When we do that, the rest comes naturally, and we love others as they should be loved. So, give Him everything – and let your life be love.

Matthew
22:34-40

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love.

Halloween is a fun night for a child, but it can be much more nerve-wracking for parents. We're offering a few tips to keep things safe and fun while you are out trick-or-treating this year.

Consider using reflective tape on your child's costume, back, and shoes, to increase visibility. Your child may also want to wear glow stick necklaces and bracelets that will help them be seen by motorists and bicyclists.

You should also consider using face paint or makeup instead of a mask for your child. Masks can make it harder for children to see, and harder for you to easily identify your child in a crowd.

Catechesis. The Documents of the Second Vatican Council. IV. Constitution Gaudium et Spes. 6. Commitment to the family in today's society (GS, 47-52)

Dear brothers and sisters, good morning and welcome!

The first think I would like to say is thank you!. Thank you for the support of your prayers. Thanks be to God for His generosity. Let us all renew our trust in God's goodness and mercy.

The pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes (GS) of the Second Vatican Council, having illustrated in the first part the dignity of the person and his or her vocation in the world, goes on to consider, in the second part, "in the light of the Gospel and of human experience", some of the most pressing contemporary issues (cf. GS, 46). It focuses primarily on marriage and the family, in the conviction that "the well-being of the individual and of human and Christian society is intimately linked with the healthy condition of that community produced by marriage and family" (GS, 47).

To this end, it does not merely reaffirm their values and aims, but proposes a renewed conception of marriage as an "intimate partnership of married life and love" (GS, 48). By incorporating the legal dimension of marriage as a contract, the foundation of this union is recognized in the "conjugal covenant", understood as the "human act whereby spouses mutually bestow and accept each another" (ibid.). The mutual self-giving of man and woman, such that 'they are no longer two but one flesh' (Mt 19:6), underlies the requirement for "total fidelity" and the "unbreakable oneness" of the spouses, finding vivid expression in the procreation and upbringing of children (cf. GS, 48). As a reflection of the Divine Trinity, conjugal and parental love, through the Sacrament of Marriage, is "governed and enriched by Christ's redeeming power", so that spouses may love one another "just as He loved the Church and handed Himself over on her behalf" (ibid.).

Having shed light on the reality of marriage in the light of Christ's love, which is the truth of both human and divine love, Gaudium et Spes turns its attention to conjugal love and marital fruitfulness. Not limited to erotic attraction, which it nonetheless encompasses, conjugal love involves the entire will of the spouses, enlivening the affections of their hearts and expressing itself through sentiments and gestures of tenderness (cf. GS, 49). Embracing the good of the whole person of both man and woman, who are equal in dignity, this love pervades the entire life of the spouses, finding expression in acts proper exclusively to marriage (cf. ibid.). Whilst signifying integral love from person to person, the unique intimacy between the spouses fosters their mutual self-giving and enriches their shared joy (cf. ibid.).

Furthermore, the fruitfulness of conjugal love is expressed in the procreation of children, "the supreme gift of marriage" (GS, 50). By transmitting and educating human life, which must never be rejected, spouses become "cooperators with the love of God the Creator, and are, so to speak, the interpreters of that love" (ibid.). Called to this human and Christian responsibility, they are bound to allow themselves to be guided by a sound judgement regarding their own good and that of their children, whether already born or yet to be born. Such a judgement, which, in the final analysis, the spouses themselves must form before God, requires that their conscience conform to divine law, as interpreted by the Magisterium of the Church in the light of the Gospel (cf. ibid.).

The emphasis on loving communion and procreative fruitfulness within marriage leads the Council to rule out the possibility of there being "a true contradiction ... between the divine laws pertaining to the transmission of life, and those pertaining to authentic conjugal love" (GS, 51) and to affirm, instead, that "when there is question of harmonizing conjugal love with the responsible transmission of life", one must "preserve the full sense of mutual self-giving and human procreation in the context of true love" (ibid.). From this it follows both that "from the moment of its conception life must be guarded with the greatest care", renouncing "abortion and infanticide"; and that "the acts themselves which are proper to conjugal love and which are exercised in accord with genuine human dignity must be honoured with great reverence" (ibid.).

The teaching of Gaudium et Spes on the conjugal and family community thus goes on to highlight the social function of the family, defined as "a school of deeper humanity" and "the foundation of society" (GS, 52), calling upon all those with social responsibilities, especially in the political and cultural spheres, to fulfil their duty to "work efficiently for the welfare of marriage and the family" (ibid.).

Dear friends, this task is more urgent than ever before. The Church is well aware of this, as shown by the pastoral concern of the Popes who have succeeded one another since the last Council, right up to the two Synodal Assemblies convened by Pope Francis, which were addressed again in recent days by the Heads of the Eastern Catholic Churches and the Presidents of the Episcopal Conferences. May the Holy Family of Nazareth enlighten us on our journey and protect families throughout the world.

Special greetings:

I extend a warm welcome to all the English-speaking pilgrims and visitors taking part in today's Audience. Upon all of you and your families, I invoke the joy and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ. God bless you all!

Summary of the Holy Father's words:

Dear brothers and sisters, in our ongoing catechesis on Gaudium et Spes, today we consider the dignity of marriage and the family in the context of contemporary challenges. The Council Fathers recognized that the well-being of all in society is closely linked to the health of marriage and the family, and sought to present a renewed vision of conjugal love as an intimate partnership which reflects the life of the Trinity and is rooted in and enriched by the redemptive power of Christ. Let us, therefore, pray for God's blessing and protection upon all families.
